

Charles Filley

Published in Houston Chronicle on June 13, 2006

CHARLES FILLEY, 68, of Nassau Bay, Texas passed away June 9, 2006. He was born May 2, 1938 in Washington, D.C. to parents Ferris and Frances Filley. A graduate of the United States Naval Academy class of 1961, Chuck worked as an aerospace engineer and manager for NASA's Gemini, Apollo, and Space Shuttle programs until his retirement in 1982. He is survived by his former wife and forever travel partner, Carolyn Filley of Seabrook; daughter Kimberly Campbell and husband, Bryan of Houston; and son Dr. Mark "Tag" Filley and wife, Alicia of the Woodlands. His grandchildren include Collin, Aidan, Alaina, Savannah, and Angie. A brother, Robert Filley, of Show Low, Arizona, also survives him. A memorial service will be held Thursday, June 15, 2006 at 1:00 p.m. at the Crowder Funeral Home on 111 East Medical Center Blvd., Webster, Texas followed by an informal gathering to celebrate his life at The Bay Area Museum, Clear Lake Park on NASA Parkway. Special thanks go to VITAS Hospice for their compassionate and responsive staff. In lieu of flowers, please consider donations to either Habitat for Humanity or the American Cancer Society.
